

I support the recommendation that the 160-meter amateur band be changed to give narrow-band communication exclusive right to use the low end of the band. Spectrum is valuable these days, and we who use CW need protection from broadband. W6DJR